JANUARY BARGAINS.

This is considered by all merchants to be a part of the dull season. Now that is something entirely foreign to us-we know no dull seasons. When business begins to slow up we know the remedy and quickly apply it. Our remedy is well known to our patrons, and that is the usual cutting in prices. Our entire stock has been marked down, and the people would do well to take a wise hint and do their shopping now as nearly all classes of merchandise are advancing.
